Jordan-GCC joint committee holds talks

A Jordanian-Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) joint committee of senior officials on Monday evening discussed means to enhance cooperation between the Kingdom and the council. A statement by the Foreign Ministry, cited by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, said that talks also went over ways to coordinate efforts aimed at implementing joint action plans within the strategic partnership framework as agreed upon by both sides. The meeting, held via video-conference, was chaired by Foreign Ministry Secretary General Yousef Batayneh and Undersecretary of Regional and GCC Affairs at the Bahraini Foreign Ministry Waheed Sayyar.

Saudi Arabia hosts 'Davos in Desert' amid pandemic

Saudi Arabia opened a two-day Davos-style investment forum on Wednesday, with dozens of global policy makers and business tycoons lined up to speak at the largely virtual event amid the coronavirus pandemic. Only 200 of around 8,000 registered delegates are attending the fourth edition of the Future Investment Initiative (FII) in-person at Riyadh's Ritz-Carlton hotel, organisers said. Previous summits drew thousands of Wall Street titans and global policymakers. Around 100 speakers are set to participate virtually from FII hubs in New York, Paris, Beijing and Mumbai and 50 are physically attending the conference, which seeks to showcase the insular kingdom as a dynamic investment destination.
