Amman Chamber of Commerce calls for stronger trade relations with Indonesia

The Amman Chamber of Commerce (ACC) on Monday called for expanding the horizons of economic, trade and tourism cooperation with Indonesia, and the activation of the agreements signed between private-sector institutions to enhance economic relations. In a meeting with the president of the Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and a delegation of representatives from the Azhar Educational Institute, ACC board members noted that Jordan's education sector is one of the best in the region. They stressed the necessity of cooperation between both sides to attract Indonesian students to enrol in various programmes at universities in the Kingdom.

Al Rai, Al Ahliyya join hands for cooperation

The Jordan Press Foundation/Al Rai (JPF) and Al Ahliyya Amman University on Saturday signed a cooperation agreement, under which training courses will be held through Al Rai. As part of the accord, which was signed by JPF Director General Farid Silwani and Ahliyya President Sari Hamdan, symposiums and studies will be conducted by coordinating the objectives of both institutions. The agreement seeks to enhance and develop information management methods and establish specialised centres within the field, in addition to contributing to the administration of the media literacy file with a focus on freedom of expression and the right to know.

Higher council, JTB prepare for accessible tourism summit in Dubai

HH Prince Mired Bin Raad, president of the Higher Council for the Affairs of Persons with Disabilities and Abdel Razzaq Arabiyat, managing director of the Jordan Tourism Board (JTB), on Monday signed a cooperation agreement with the Nadd Alshiba PR and Event Management company. The agreement is part of preparations for the third round of Dubai Ashab Al Hemam (People with Determination) Expo in November to tackle issues that face people with disabilities, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Jordan is scheduled to participate in the expo, which will take place at the Dubai International Exhibition and Convention Centre on the sidelines of the Accessible Tourism International Summit.
