Germany is keen on boosting support to Jordan

The German government is keen on increasing its aid to Jordan's public budget to support sectors of mutual interest a German official said on Wednesday. Claudia Warning, the director general for the Middle East, Asia, Latin America, south-eastern and eastern Europe at the German federal ministry for economic cooperation and development, made the remarks during a meeting with Minister of Planning and International Cooperation, and Minister of State for Economic Affairs Mohamad Al-Ississ. The talks covered increasing financial and technical support to priority areas of cooperation, including the sectors of water and education, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Amman, Istanbul chambers of commerce ink agreement to strengthen cooperation

The Amman and Istanbul chambers of commerce on Wednesday signed a cooperation agreement to bolster bilateral relations and support economic and trade exchange. The agreement signed by Amman Chamber of Commerce (ACC) Chairman Khalil Haj Tawfiq and President of the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Sekib Avdagiç, aims at encouraging, improving and easing service and trade cooperation, as well as establishing an effective line of communication between the two sides. Under the agreement, the two chambers will ease and expand economic and industrial cooperation as well as share information about various sectors, markets and job opportunities in Amman and Istanbul, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Tourist sites record surge in guests as June figures jump 26.5 per cent

The number of visitors arriving in Jordan during June rose by 26.5 per cent to some 455,383 people, whereas the number of overnight visitors reached 393,761 people, rising by 26.4 per cent compared with the same period last year. Minister of Tourism and Antiquities Majd Shweikeh on Wednesday said that monthly statistical indicators showed an improvement in the tourism sector's performance, which she attributed to expanded marketing in traditional and promising markets and new low-cost flights, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.
