Agreements signed to establish youth employment centres in agriculture sector

Prime Minister and Minister of Defence Omar Razzaz on Wednesday attended the signing ceremony of memoranda of understanding between the Labour Ministry, the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and the Technical and Vocational Skills Development Commission to establish six employment, guidance and support centres for youth in the agriculture sector. Under the agreements, six centres will be established in four governorates, where 500 young graduates of the National Service programme will be employed when they complete their training, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. ILO, through a Netherlands-funded project, will be responsible for supporting the administrative and technical aspects, the employees and the experts at these centres, while the commission's employment fund will oversee employees' registration for social security and health insurance in "a decent work environment".

Safadi talks economic ties, regional crises with Cypriot, Greek FMs

Minister of Foreign Affairs Ayman Safadi, his Greek counterpart Nikos Dendias and his Cypriot counterpart Nikos Christodoulides held a meeting on Wednesday to enhance economic cooperation and increase coordination in efforts to resolve regional crises and achieve security and stability. Wednesday's discussions marked the third meeting of the foreign ministers within the framework of the tripartite cooperation mechanism that was launched in 2016, according to a Foreign Ministry statement. The ministers reviewed steps taken by the three countries to implement the outcomes of decisions made at summits held by the leaders in Nicosia on January 16, 2018 and in Amman on April 14, 2019. During the remote meeting, the ministers stressed the continuation of work to deepen cooperation in the economic, commercial, investment, tourism and defence fields.
