EU mobilises 20.1m euros package for virus response among Syrians, host communities

As part of the EU's global response to the coronavirus outbreak, the EU Regional Trust Fund in Response to the Syrian Crisis has mobilised an additional 55 million euros for refugees from Syria and vulnerable persons in Jordan and Lebanon to fight the pandemic. The newly adopted package will provide "critical and targeted support" in key areas such as health, water, sanitation and hygiene. It brings the total assistance mobilised through the EU Trust Fund to over 2.2 billion euros since 2015, doubling the target originally set, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Vice-President of the European Commission Josep Borrell commented: "Jordan and Lebanon are showing huge resilience and solidarity in hosting Syrian refugees. It is our duty to continue supporting them, especially in the current coronavirus pandemic situation."

PM reviews gov't anti-corruption measures during visit to JIACC

The government is committed to implementing all of its anti-corruption measures according to Royal directives, Prime Minister and Minister of Defence Omar Razzaz said on Wednesday, stressing that corrupt persons have "no immunity" and that the law "applies to all". During a visit to the Jordanian Integrity and Anti-Corruption Commission (JIACC) and a meeting with JIACC Chairman Muhannad Hijazi, Razzaz said that His Majesty King Abdullah, while presiding over part of the Cabinet session on Tuesday, focused on a set of local issues, most notably anti-corruption action and the rule of law and its application to all. The meeting was attended by Minister of State for Prime Ministry Affairs Sami Daoud and Minister of State for Media Affairs Amjad Adaileh, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.
