Chinese investors, New Mazar discuss investments worth JD25 million

Hangzhou Investment Holdings Co. Ltd. and Chinese investors have discussed means of cooperation and partnership with the New Mazar Municipality through investments in the North Mazar valued at JD25 million in the first phase. The meeting, between Hangzhou Chairman of the Board of Directors Mohammad Jarrah, Chinese investors and Mayor Mutee Sharman, included signing a memorandum of understanding, Al Rai Arabic daily reported on Sunday. The company expressed its readiness to increase its investment in the health, environment, tourism, and sustainable development sectors, while starting partnerships with ministries, municipalities and local community institutions. The New Mazar Municipality, for its part, would offer all procedural facilities and infrastructure.

His Majesty discusses Jordan's partnership with WEF

His Majesty King Abdullah on Sunday met with the founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum (WEF) Professor Klaus Schwab on the sidelines of His Majesty's visit to New York to attend the 74th Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations. The meeting covered Jordan's partnership with the WEF, having hosted the WEF on the Middle East and North Africa for the 10th time this year, with the participation of hundreds of political, business, and civil society leaders, a Royal Court statement said. Adviser to His Majesty for Communication and Coordination Bisher Al Khasawneh and Minister of Planning and International Cooperation and Minister of State for Economic Affairs Mohamad Al-Ississ attended the meeting, according to the statement.

Qatar PM welcomes newly appointed Jordan envoy

Qatari Prime Minister and Interior Minister Sheikh Abdullah Bin Nasser Bin Khalifa Al Thani on Sunday received Jordanian Ambassador to Qatar Zeid Lozi. Sheikh Abdullah congratulated the newly appointed envoy, and wished him success in his new post to support the "distinguished, fraternal ties" between Jordan and Qatar, according to a Foreign Ministry statement. For his part, Lozi voiced his keenness to further bolster Jordanian-Qatari relations in implementation of the directives of both countries' leaderships.
